

ACE is a Central Community House (Central) initiative to help budding or existing entrepreneurs overcome the challenges to small business success. It is a collaborative endeavor, bringing together the best industry experts Columbus has to offer. Entrepreneurship courses will be taught by Deonna Barnett of Aventi Enterprises. Susan Colbert of OSU Extension will teach money management modules. Creative industry networking and expertise will be offered by Central's Jackie Calderone, Director of Transit Arts. Table talks will be moderated by Nancy Tidwell of NRT & Associates, who also will provide unique procurement and technical expertise to those working within construction industries. Access to capital resources will be provided by the Economic and Community Development Institute (ECDI).

Power to Purpose. Start enterprises of your own.

Entrepreneurs are a vital thread in the fabric of community.

The time is now. Take what you do to the next level.
