How Information is Used

Central Community House uses your data to maintain records of donations, send acknowledgements, mail tax statements to you, and to keep you up to date on Central activities through newsletters, notices and direct mail pieces, and for internal marketing purposes. We normally add you to our mailing list, unless you request otherwise. Our third-party mailing service is contractually obligated to treat the lists with confidentiality and is prohibited from transferring them elsewhere.

Credit card numbers are NOT retained once processed and are managed through our third-party partner MightyCause (which provides its own privacy policy). Donations over 2% of our entire budget must be reported on IRS Form 990, Schedule B.

We use website statistics to analyze our website usage.

No Sharing of Personal Information

Central Community House will not sell, rent, trade or transfer your personal information to outside organizations. Use of donor information will be limited to the internal purposes of Central Community House and only to further the mission of Central Community House. Nevertheless, security measures may not prevent all losses, and CCH is not responsible for any damages or liabilities relating to unlikely security failures.
